UC San Diego Academy of Clinician Scholars (AoCS) Faculty Development and Clinical Research Awards

Kaiser Permanente Award Professional Development in Clinical Education Improved Patient/Physician Communication

The UC San Diego Health Sciences Academy of Clinician Scholars (AoCS) is a body of distinguished faculty recognized by their peers for exceptional clinical skills, their commitment to patient care, medical education, and the advancement of new medical knowledge. The Academy creates a legacy of excellent healthcare delivery by fostering the continuous professional development of UC San Diego's clinician scholars.

In support of its mission, the Academy offers annual competitive awards to further professional development of clinical faculty at UC San Diego.

Applicant Eligibility

1. Academic Series: All series are eligible, except for MSP contracts and Volunteer basis.
2. Academic Rank: Any rank
3. Clinical activity must be at least 50% effort (includes direct patient care and clinical administration). A letter from the department chair or division chief confirming effort is required.
4. Basic research proposals are excluded.
5. MD, DO or PharmD are eligible.

Types of Applications Suitable for Funding

- (1) Clinical research proposals
- (2) Skill development proposals
- (3) Fostering improved patient/physician communication. Fundable activities awarded by AoCS may include but are not limited to the following areas:
 - Support for a research project
 - Acquiring a new clinical skill, procedure, or teaching tool
 - Acquiring new knowledge to build a clinical research database
 - Support for new collaborations to enhance clinical research at UCSD
 - Building a nascent program at UC San Diego in a novel area or enhancing an already existing program (must provide rationale for later)
 - Developing and/or bringing new technology to UC San Diego
 - Establishing a new training course for clinicians at UC San Diego
 - Funding travel and support of sabbatical/leave activity that would benefit clinical programs and clinicians at UC San Diego

- Tuition and travel expenses to attend short courses that will enhance clinical, teaching, or research potential
