

From: UCSD Pediatrics
Sent: Thursday, July 29, 2021 2:57 PM
To: _DOP_Department (A-Z)
Subject: Announcement: Chris Cannavino, MD

Importance: High

Department of Pediatrics NEWS FLASH

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

We are very pleased to announce that Christopher Cannavino, MD has been selected for the 2020-2021 Barbara and Paul Saltman Distinguished Teaching Award for Non-Senate Members.

The Committee on Distinguished Teaching seeks to select candidates who exhibit creativity and innovative teaching methods, have the ability to motivate students to actively seek out knowledge, and demonstrate an extraordinary level of teaching commitment. A prestigious award bestowed upon up just five members of the Academic Senate, three non-Senate faculty members, and three graduate students at UC San Diego each year, the Distinguished Teaching Award is a tangible expression of UC San Diego's commitment to excellence in teaching.

Dr. Cannavino was also recognized at the School of Medicine Commencement Ceremony as the recipient of the 2021 UCSD School of Medicine's Kaiser "Excellence in Teaching" Award, as selected by the 3rd year medical student class.

Please join us in congratulating Dr. Cannavino on these well-deserved awards.

Department of Pediatrics Communications: Debbie Taheri

UC San Diego
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Rady Children's Hospital
San Diego

The logo graphic for Rady Children's Hospital San Diego consists of several teal-colored triangles of varying sizes and orientations, arranged in a circular pattern that suggests a stylized sun or a cluster of stars.